

Woof! Don't let my purebred status scare you. I'm down to earth and can hang out with anyone. Well... except smaller dogs and cats.

Emma is a character and would love to have a home for the holidays! She's a sweet dog and likes to go for walks and doesn't mind canoodling with dogs her own size (smaller dogs don't impress her). Even though she is a purebred American Bulldog, Emma doesn't let her status go to her head. She meets and greets everyone. Stop at the Parma Animal Shelter and see for yourself. If Emma isn't in her cage, she's out with one of the volunteers for a walk. She needs her exercise so she can stay fit n' trim.
